Allowable Subject Matter

1. Applicant's argument to the drawings is deemed to overcome the outstanding office action.
2. Claims 1-7 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior does not teach or suggest the switch device comprising an operating element for connecting of the two NC contacts of the first switch element to a lower voltage source line at a lower voltage than the higher voltage source line each through one of the at least one NC contact of the second switch element, and maintaining the at least one NC contact of the second switch element in an open condition during a period from when one of the NO contacts begins to change from a closed condition to an open condition until corresponding one of the NC contact of the first switch element finishes changing from an open condition to a closed condition.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
